

Tweedeverblijverskaart – vertaling Engels

Second-home owners in De Panne receive a personalised second-home owner card. The local authorities treat you to exclusive perks that will help you get even more out of your stay. Discover, enjoy & have fun in De Panne!

Benefits

1. Discounted Admission to Plopsaqua De Panne
Second-home owners pay only €12.00 (instead of €27.50) on presentation of their second-home owner card and a valid, legible ID card. Tickets can be purchased at the Plopsaqua ticket office.
  - Discounted admission tickets do not include parking. Parking tickets must be purchased separately at the Plopsaqua De Panne ticket office.
  - The second-home owner ticket does not grant access to Plopsaland De Panne.
2. Free ticket for Plopsaland De Panne open day
As a second-home owner, you can use your second-home owner card to visit Plopsaland De Panne for free during the open days in November.
3. Provincial Visitor's Centre Duinpanne
Show your card at Duinpanne (Olmendreef 2) for complimentary entry to ticketed exhibitions.

Terms & Conditions

1. This card is valid for the cardholder and all family members officially residing with them.
2. This card is strictly personal to you as the property owner and non-transferable. The associated benefits do not apply to tenants of your second residence.
3. The second-home owner card is only valid during the period indicated on the card.
4. Use of the card implies acceptance of the park regulations of Plopsaqua De Panne and Plopsaland De Panne.

Who qualifies as a second-home owner?

Second-home owners of the municipality of De Panne are individuals who officially own a second residence within De Panne's territory and pay annual municipal taxes for this property. The local authority maintains an official list of second-home owners.
